2.4 Business Delays Beyond Paparazzi's Control

Paparazzi is not responsible for any or all delays or failures in the performance of its obligations when such performance is made commercially impractical due to circumstances beyond its reasonable control. This includes, without limitation, strikes, labor difficulties, riot, war, fire, natural disasters, death, curtailment of a party's sources of supply, or government decrees or orders.

This also applies to third party vendors of Paparazzi and limitations within their services, including but not limited to delivery of packages or product, or any other feature, function, or service that is not expressly within the Company's control.

2.5 Invalid or Unenforceable Policies

If any part of the Agreement is held to be invalid or unenforceable, only that invalid or unenforceable portion may be removed and the remainder of the Agreement shall remain intact and in force.

2.6 Compliance Enforcement

The Company never gives up its right to insist on the Independent Consultant's compliance with the Agreement and with the applicable laws governing the conduct of a business. No failure of Paparazzi to exercise any right or power under the Agreement or to insist upon strict compliance by a Consultant with any obligation or provision of the Agreement, and no custom or practice of the parties at variance with the terms of the Agreement, shall constitute a waiver of Paparazzi's right to demand exact compliance with the Agreement or any components thereof. Waiver by Paparazzi can be effectuated only in writing by an authorized officer of the Company. Paparazzi's waiver of any particular breach by a Consultant shall not affect or impair Paparazzi's rights with respect to any subsequent breach, nor shall it affect in any way the rights or obligations of any other Consultant. Nor shall any delay or omission by Paparazzi to exercise any right arising from a breach affect or impair Paparazzi's rights as to that or any subsequent breach. The existence of any claim or cause of action of a Consultant against Paparazzi shall not constitute a defense to Paparazzi's enforcement of any term or provision of the Agreement.

Any action or enforcement taken by Paparazzi in relation to a compliance issue will be addressed solely between Paparazzi and the parties involved. There is no requirement of notification to any other parties as to the outcome of such an investigation.

3.5 Business Entities

Certain types of corporations or businesses can apply to be a Paparazzi Independent Consultant through the Independent Consultant Agreement. Business entities are allowed to retail the product through any medium available to them (internet, retail store, etc.) as long as the retail or sales price to the end consumer is never lower (advertised or otherwise) than the suggested retail price per unit ($5 USD). Any exceptions to the suggested retail price offering must be approved in writing by an authorized officer of Paparazzi, and will only be considered for show events. This is in an effort to protect the business of all Independent Consultants.

During the registration process, all policies still apply that are applicable from the Agreement. All persons, including Consultants, principles, and employees, of the corporation or business entity are held to the "Vested Interest" clause in Section 3.2.

3.6 Identification

During the application process, the Independent Consultant must provide a Social Security Number or a Federal Identification Number to Paparazzi. Once the application is submitted and accepted, Paparazzi will assign a unique Consultant identification number. This will be used as the primary identifier of the Consultant account within Paparazzi Support, online applications, the tracking of orders, packages, and commissions processing and payments. These IDs and other identifying numbers should not be shared with others.

3.7 Maintaining Consultant Status

After the initial application process, maintaining an Independent Consultant status and placement within the Paparazzi commission tree structure is contingent upon the following things:

- a. Adhering to and maintaining all published policies, agreements, and components thereof (be in good standing);
- b. Order or accumulate at least 200 PV of inventory within the previous twelve (12) consecutive calendar months;
- c. Be up-to-date on any invoices, owing balances, or retractions.

If at any point any of the items documented above are not maintained, the account will be terminated, and the position will be removed from the commission tree structure. At this point, the Consultant will lose all claim, rights, and privileges associated with the former position or account. If at any point a terminated Consultant wishes to re-engage as a Consultant of Paparazzi in good standing, the individual may reapply and, pending approval, may be reenrolled into the organization. Reapplying Consultants will not be placed in previous locations within the commission tree or gain any of their former privileges associated with their former position.

SECTION 4 – Consultant Relationship with Paparazzi

4.1 Independent Contractor Status

When a Consultant joins Paparazzi, they are an Independent Consultant, or independent contractor. They do not purchase a franchise or business opportunity, and the agreement between the Independent Consultant and Paparazzi does not create an employer/employee relationship, partnership, or joint venture. As a result, the Independent Consultant is solely responsible for paying all local, state, and federal taxes owed from any compensation earned, in the form of retail profits retained at the sale of all product or the bonus/commission plan offered by Paparazzi. Paparazzi will not withhold any FICA or taxes of any kind from any commission or bonuses paid out. Independent Consultants are in complete control of the means by which they operate their Paparazzi business. They will establish their own goals, hours, parties, shows, and methods of sale – within compliance with this Agreement and applicable laws. They are solely responsible for paying all expenses incurred in the development of their business and are not authorized to incur any debt or obligation on behalf of or in the name of Paparazzi or other Consultants or to open any financial account on behalf of, for, or in the name of Paparazzi. The success of their Paparazzi business is the sole responsibility of the Independent Consultant.

4.2 Income Taxes

As an independent contractor, Independent Consultants will receive an IRS Form 1099 (Non-Employee Compensation) earnings statement if they are a U.S. resident that has earnings of over $600 paid from Paparazzi in the previous calendar year.

The Independent Consultant is solely responsible for paying local, state, and federal taxes on any income generated as an Independent Consultant. A copy of all IRS Form 1099s that are generated as a result of the criteria above will be remitted and sent to the United States Internal Revenue Service for the applicable tax year. If at any point the Federal Tax Information (name, SSN, EIN, etc.) provided by the Independent Consultant is wrong or contains an error, Paparazzi may hold all future earnings until the error is rectified within Paparazzi's records and the correction is remitted to the IRS; in these circumstances, pending the severity of error, the Consultant may be subject to be liable for any fines incurred by excessive errors submitted to the IRS.

4.3 Reporting Errors

If at any time an Independent Consultant feels that there is an error made by Paparazzi in regards to data display, volume accumulation, commission calculation, order delivery, tree placement of Consultants, or any other error – the Consultant has 30 days to notify Paparazzi, in writing, or when the purported error or incident occurred. Failure to do so will waive Paparazzi's liability to correct, rectify, or make any adjustments for the issue in question.

4.4 Limitations of Liability

By signing or agreeing to the Independent Consultant Agreement or any component thereof, the Consultant agrees to release, discharge, and hold harmless Paparazzi, and anyone directly affiliated with Paparazzi (employees, officers, etc.) from any loss or damages, including costs and fees, incurred or suffered by you as a result of:

- a. The Independent Contractor's breach of the Agreement (including these policies);
- b. The improper promotion or operation of the Paparazzi opportunity, business, or related activities;
- c. Any incorrect data or information provided by a Consultant to Paparazzi;
- d. Any incorrect data or display information displayed by the Virtual Back Office;
- e. The Consultant's failure to provide any information to Paparazzi that may be necessary for Paparazzi to operate its business; or
- f. The Consultant's failure to execute their personal business strategy.

4.5 Request for Records

A Consultant's request for physical copies of invoices, applications, downline reports or other records will require a review and approval by the Compliance Department and will be subject to a $1.00 charge per page, as well as any applicable shipping charges.

4.6 Roll-Up of Downline Organization

When a vacancy occurs in a downline organization due to the voluntary termination of a Paparazzi business, all Consultants or positions shift up one level in order to fill that vacancy within the organization or commission tree. This process and the removal of the terminated position is at the sole discretion and approval of the company, and may take up to three months to review. Roll-up of downline organization may not be approved in circumstances where there is any manipulation in the roll-up or termination process, or there is a significant rank advancement or commission increase that will occur as a result of such roll-up. In circumstances where roll-up of the downline organization is not approved, the vacant position will still be terminated, and will remain empty until the company deems necessary.

When an account is terminated involuntarily by the Company, for any reason, and the original position had generated a total commission earning in excess of $50, the position will not be removed from the organization and the proceeding downline will not be "rolled-up." This is due to the potential consequences as detailed above in such moves. The position will remain there, but be deemed inactive. As a result of compression in the Paparazzi Compensation Plan, it is anticipated that this activity will not negatively affect commission payout through the Unilevel program, however it will keep organizational leg structure intact, and minimize potential manipulation within the organization.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

4.7 Sale, Transfer, or Assignment of a Paparazzi Business or Position

Although your Paparazzi business is privately owned and independently operated, the sale, transfer, or assignment of it is subject to certain limitations and corporate approval. If you wish to sell your Paparazzi business or position within the organization structure, you must receive written authorization from the Company, and the Company has first right to purchase the position. In order to sell, transfer, or assign a Paparazzi business, the following criteria must be met:

- a. The line of sponsorship must always be maintained, and the business must continue on;
- b. The organization must be protected, and an agreement must be signed from the departing Consultant that it will be protected for the next 24 months after the transaction – resulting in no contact, recruiting, or cross recruiting;
- c. The departing Consultant agrees not to enroll as a Paparazzi Consultant for a period of no less than twelve months, or as a Consultant or distributor for any network marketing or direct sales company for a period of no less than six months;
- d. The purchasing agent must not currently be or have been a Consultant for the previous twelve months.
- e. He or she must be new to Paparazzi;
- f. The purchasing agent must enroll through the transaction as a new Consultant, signing the Agreement, and a new account created;
- g. No history is transferable, only the position and location in tree;
- h. Before the sale is finalized, it must be brought to Paparazzi's attention for approval;
- i. All participants must have been in good standing for the previous twelve months;
- j. A $250 Transfer Fee must be paid prior to the approved transfer being processed.

Paparazzi reserves the right to deny the transfer or sale of any organization at its sole discretion, request additional information, or documentation. Upon approval or denial, Paparazzi will give further directions or timeline associated with the decision.

4.8 Separation of a Business

In circumstances where joint owners or partners of a single position or Paparazzi business no longer wish to continue the business relationship due to separation or divorce, there must be a way to equitably continue the business as a single entity, in its current location, while minimizing any impact to any other business owners which may be formally or informally associated with the business in question. If such an action is not possible, then Paparazzi will involuntarily terminate the Consultant Agreement, and the position, account, or business entity will be terminated.

During any business separation or divorce proceedings, the following options are available in which Paparazzi will support:

- a. One party, with consent of the other, continues to operate the business pursuant to the Agreement. All claimants on the position will deal directly with the party selected, and Paparazzi will deal and respond only to the selected account operator;
- b. The parties may continue to operate the account as joint owners and partners.

In the event that the parties cannot come to a resolve for the dispute, Paparazzi will terminate the Consultant Agreement and execute its right to either terminate the position or take control of the account.

4.9 Transfer Upon Death of a Consultant

To affect a transfer upon the death of a Consultant, the claimant will need to provide the following:

- a. Copy of the death certificate;
- b. Notarized letter or legal instrument establishing the rightful successor; and
- c. Completion of a new Consultant Agreement.

4.10 Indemnification

A Consultant is fully responsible for all of his/her verbal and written actions or statements made regarding Paparazzi products and the Paparazzi Marketing and Compensation Opportunity that are not expressly contained with official Paparazzi materials. Consultants agree to indemnify Paparazzi and Paparazzi's directors, officers, agents, and employees and hold them harmless from any liability including judgments, civil penalties, refunds, attorney fees, court costs, or lost business incurred by Paparazzi as a result of the Consultant's unauthorized representations or actions. 4.13 Paparazzi Right to Data

Paparazzi reserves the right to store acquired data from the Consultant. They also maintain the right to own, share, or display such data (excluding secure data) within reasonable means to increase the business of the Consultant, or the offering of Paparazzi. This right includes sharing contact information, general location information, success information, or any other reasonable data through appropriate mediums, such as the Paparazzi website, replicated sites, web based communication, letters, telephone, or other accepted mediums of communication.

Paparazzi commits to protect the integrity of such data to the full extent it is reasonably capable of doing, and to avoid selling or distributing any sensitive information with organizations or persons that are in-line with the mission and goals of Paparazzi, or that is in the reasonable welfare of their Consultants.

4.14 Disparaging Remarks

Consultants may not use disparaging remarks in relation to Paparazzi corporate staff, employees, directors, officers, or any other representative of Paparazzi, including but not limited to other Independent Consultants. Consultants are to conduct their business with positivity and in a manner that uplifts everyone. Comments made by Consultants that may be negative in nature and relate to others potentially damage their own business, the businesses of others, and the Paparazzi brand. Consultants should be courteous, polite, and always seek an amicable resolution to any disagreement or dispute.

Owners of social media sites, forums, blogs, or community pages are responsible to ensure that all messaging and content by contributors to those pages remain positive, uplifting, and supportive of the Paparazzi business, operators, Consultants, and programs. All comments made on any such sites are the sole responsibility of the owner to monitor, and any violation or

5.10 Online Activity

Independent Consultants may not use any online forum (eBay, classifieds, Craigslist, or any other online retail tool) to bundle, distribute, or sell Paparazzi products.

Independent Consultants are not allowed to use a mass e-mailer or generate "SPAM" for their Paparazzi Business.

Social media or networking is permitted for the intention of developing a warm market, or networking with current associates, but is not permitted for the direct sale or distribution of Paparazzi product. Consultants are not allowed to recruit through any Paparazzi Corporate social media page, or through any social media page that does not directly belong to that Consultant. This also includes directly contacting someone through instant messages or e-mails that were found through a social media site not directly owned by that Consultant.

Violation of this policy can result in termination, as potential Consultants who are interested in doing Paparazzi can quickly become disinterested through heavy online recruiting activities.

Any and all online activity of Consultants with the intention of promoting Paparazzi must be appropriately designated as an "Independent Consultant." In accordance to Section 5.13, Paparazzi products must not be displayed or sold alongside any other product(s). This policy extends to all online forums including but not limited to websites, shopping carts, and social media platforms.

5.11 Retailing or Reselling

After the initial product or inventory is purchased, no product can be resold or retailed for less than the suggested retail price (no product under $5 USD). This includes, but is not limited to, offering or advertising free items through buy X, get X promotions or giving free gifts with a purchase. This same policy applies whether the free promotional item being offered is a Paparazzi product or a product not carried in Paparazzi's inventory.

Offering or advertising these types of promotions lowers the retail price of each piece sold below the required $5 USD minimum. Doing so compromises the entire Paparazzi program for all Consultants. Any promotion of a Consultant's independent business or the Paparazzi opportunity through any channel of communication (public or private) is considered advertising.

Additionally, giving away free items that are not sold by Paparazzi can lead customers to the assumption that those items are part of Paparazzi's product offering. As outlined in Section 5.13, offering non-Paparazzi products alongside Paparazzi products compromises its good name and can lead to the Paparazzi name and brand being associated with inferior products.

Any exceptions to this policy must be authorized by an official Paparazzi officer in writing prior to the sale or event.

5.12 Recruiting or Enrolling Promotions

At no point may a Consultant advertise or promote an enrolling or recruiting promotion in which the price or value of the enrollment process is discounted. This includes, but is not limited to, offering discounted Starter Kits, reimbursements, cash offers for enrollment, extra personal inventory, or anything else that is seen to increase the value or decrease the value of the enrollment process. This activity is often seen as an attempt to create an unfair advantage to other Consultants.

5.13 Parties, Fairs, Expositions, and Other Temporary Sales Forums

Parties, fairs, expositions, and other temporary sales forums represent good opportunities to both sell product and expose a population of people to the Paparazzi lifestyle, culture, product, and business opportunity. Paparazzi does not have any control over the business practices or the behaviors of the event organizers, hostess home environments, or managers at the event; and Paparazzi has no intention of mediating within these environments. Therefore, Paparazzi requests that all Consultants who wish to participate in these activities adhere to the following, and acknowledge the same through this Agreement:

- a. All transactions are on a cash-and-carry basis, or through an independently established merchant account provider. Paparazzi will not process credit card charges, or accept funds on behalf of an Independent Consultant unless at a Paparazzi sponsored event and such is permitted. Paparazzi does not issue or accept any liability for the decline of charges, chargebacks, lost cash, or any other transaction difficulties that may take place at such events. All transactions for retail product are the sole responsibility of the Independent Consultant.
- b. Paparazzi does not offer or accept any liability insurance for any home party, meeting, booth, bazaar, seminar, show, or any other event or sales location initiated by the Independent Consultant. Such events are the Independent Consultant's meetings, and therefore all liabilities and ownership are the Consultant's responsibility.
- c. Only one Paparazzi booth is allowed per show or event. It is the Consultant's responsibility to check with the show managers or promoters to ensure that there are no Paparazzi Consultants contracted before space is contracted.
- d. Paparazzi show booths must exclusively offer Paparazzi Accessories. Paparazzi Accessories may not be mixed with any other products or offerings within a show booth.
- e. The Consultant must make it known to the show managers and promoters that he or she is a Paparazzi Consultant and that he or she can be the only Paparazzi Consultant present at the event. This must be done in writing. Failure to obtain written acknowledgement from the show manager or promoter that they understand this policy minimizes the Consultant's ability to mediate any potential issues that may arise.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

- f. If there are any disputes in relation to this policy, and there is more than one Consultant selling Paparazzi products at a show, the challenging Consultant must take it up with the show promoter or manager with whom they contracted the space in an effort to resolve the issue. Paparazzi will not mediate such disputes.
- g. The Consultant may never offer a sale, deal, or promotion at a show that lowers the retail or sale value below the suggested retail value of $5 per unit.
- h. No competing jewelry or similar products may be offered alongside or in the same booth as Paparazzi products in order to maintain its good name, and to minimize comparison with inferior products.
- i. The Independent Consultant, or an agent thereof, must attend all hostess parties, home parties, show booths, or events that they are sponsoring or supporting (gaining retailing product at). The booth or party may never be left unattended at any time, or with someone who is not a Paparazzi Consultant.

It should be noted that only the show director has the ability to resolve any issues on the premises. As any concerns or issues are directed towards Paparazzi, it can only be in relation to a claim of policy violation, and the Consultant who has followed the policy as outlined above, and has their documentation dated and in writing will overrule. No circumstance, in which neither disputing party in relation to a policy violation has followed the above policy, will be considered by Paparazzi. A failure to comply with the policy as outlined above, equates to failure to dispute or challenge another's right within the policy.

5.14 Change of Sponsor or Placement

To protect the integrity of all marketing organizations and the hard work of all Consultants within the organization, Paparazzi will seldom allow changes to the sponsorship or placement of another Consultant or organization. Maintaining the integrity of the sponsorship and placement trees is critical for the success of every Consultant and marketing organization. Accordingly, the transfer of a Paparazzi business from one position to another is rarely permitted.

Requests for a change of Sponsor or Placement within an organization must be submitted in writing to the Paparazzi Support Department in writing via email (support@paparazziaccessories.com), and must include the reason for the request. Transfers will only be considered in the following circumstances:

- a. Cases involving fraudulent or unethical sponsoring. All requests of this nature must be made with 60 days of the alleged activity;
- b. Consultants may terminate their positions voluntarily, wait the required 12 (twelve) months, and then re-enroll within the desired organization; or
- c. The request is made and received within 72 hours of the initial enrollment or placement.

It will be left to the sole discretion of Paparazzi whether any downline or team members may be moved in the process of such requests. At no time will a request be approved if it directly affects the ranking or significantly affects the monetary rewards from an organization (as a result of the move itself). There is a $25 non-refundable fee to investigate any requested changes.

If at any time an Independent Consultant is deemed inactive for a period of three consecutive months, that Independent Consultant forfeits all rights to have their approval required for any requested changes within their organization, at the discretion of the Company.

5.15 Non-Solicitation

Consultants may NOT participate in other direct selling opportunities (party planning, network marketing, and/or multilevel marketing) whose primary product line/offering competes with Paparazzi Accessories. This includes but is not limited to: Necklaces, earrings, bracelets, rings, lanyards, headbands, and/or hair clips. If a Consultant has a question about a particular company and whether or not there is a conflict, it is the Consultant's obligation to contact the Paparazzi Compliance Department via email at compliance@paparazziaccessories.com for clarification. Failure to adhere to this policy and the continued participation in another competing company may result in disciplinary action. This may include suspension or termination of the Consultant's account.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

In addition, during the term of this Agreement, and for 12 months after the termination of a Paparazzi account, a Consultant may not solicit, recruit, or attempt to recruit other Paparazzi Consultants to any other network marketing business.

Consultants must not sell, or attempt to sell, any competing non-Paparazzi products at any event where Paparazzi products are being sold. This includes but is not limited to jewelry, hair accessories, or other network marketing products.

Consultants may not display Paparazzi promotional material, signage, or literature in a way or fashion that may confuse or mislead a prospective customer or Consultant into believing there is a relationship between Paparazzi and non-Paparazzi products or services. Consultants may not offer the Paparazzi opportunity side by side, or in conjunction with, any non-Paparazzi opportunity, product, or service.

5.16 Downline Activity Reports (Genealogy)

Downline activity reports are available to Consultants to access and view their Paparazzi sales organization. These reports are available in the Consultant's Virtual Back Office. These reports are property of Paparazzi, and therefore the information contained therein is confidential. The use of these reports outside the intended use of supporting and building a Paparazzi organization is in direct violation of this agreement and may bring legal action upon the violating Consultant. A Consultant shall not, on his/her own behalf, or on the behalf of any other person, partnership, association, corporation or other entity:

- a. Directly or indirectly disclose any information contained in any
- b. downline activity report to any third party;
- c. Directly or indirectly disclose the password or access code to his/her downline activity report, or to the reports of any other Consultant;
- d. Use the information to compete with Paparazzi or for any purpose other than promoting his/her Paparazzi business;
- e. Recruit or solicit any Consultants or customers of Paparazzi listed on any report, or in any manner attempt to influence or induce any Consultant of Paparazzi to alter their business relationship with Paparazzi; or
- f. Use or disclose to any person, partnership, association, corporation, or other entity any information contained in any downline activity reports – including sponsorship or placement relationships.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

Upon demand by Paparazzi, any current or former Consultant will return the original and all copies of any downline activity reports to the Company.

5.17 Cross Sponsoring

Actual or attempted cross sponsoring is strictly prohibited. "Cross Sponsoring" is defined as the enrollment (or attempted enrollment) of an individual or entity which is already or has a current Independent Consultant Agreement on file with Paparazzi that has not expired or been terminated for the duration of 12 consecutive months. The use of a spouse's or relative's name, trade names, DBAs, assumed names, corporations, partnerships, trusts, federal ID numbers, fictitious ID numbers, or any other artifice to circumvent this policy is prohibited. Consultants must not demean, discredit, or defame other Consultants in an attempt to entice another Consultant to become a part of a new organization with Paparazzi or within another company.

If cross sponsoring is discovered, it must be brought to the Company's attention immediately. Paparazzi will then conduct a compliance investigation, in which Paparazzi reserves the right to permanently terminate any agreements involved, rectify the organization as they deem appropriate, and potentially initiate legal action.

This violation will result in immediate suspension of the Consultant's account followed by an investigation into the matter and, if warranted or deemed necessary by the Compliance Department, the termination of the Consultant's account.

5.19 Inventory Loading

Consultants must never purchase more products than they can reasonably use or sell to Retail Customers in a month, and therefore must not influence other Consultants to purchase more product than they can reasonably sell within a month. Not only will excess product not be returnable, it may be seen as Bonus Buying and a violation of Section 5.20.

5.20 Bonus Buying

Bonus Buying is strictly and absolutely prohibited. "Bonus Buying" involves any method of directly or indirectly maintaining or increasing a Consultant's rank, volume, or commission level by purchasing products for which the Consultant does not have a bona fide need for personal use or bona fide reason or intent to resell within the next 30 days from the date of the order; or, placing orders personally with the intention of hitting or maintaining a rank, volume, or commission level. This also includes using multiple positions within the organization to achieve the goal of "buying" the bonus or achievement.

If it is determined by the Compliance Department that a Consultant is Bonus Buying, that Consultant may be subject to suspension, termination, loss of commissions, loss of rank, or temporary or permanent suspension of the return policy. Product determined to be used or purchased in an abusive manner (i.e. Bonus Buying) will not be allowed to be returned.

It is also expected that Consultant uphold all agreements, contracts, or obligations entered into with any other party, through the course of building their Paparazzi business.

SECTION 6 – RESPONSIBILITIES OF CONSULTANTS

6.1 Change of Address, Telephone, or Contact Information

To avoid any disruption in business practices, the Consultant is responsible to notify Paparazzi of any changes to the contact information provided on the Consultant's account. Most changes can be made online, but can also be done via phone through the Paparazzi Support Department. A Post Office Box (P.O. Box) is acceptable for a billing address, but not acceptable for a shipping address, as inventory packages will NOT be shipped using the USPS and will NOT be delivered to a USPS P.O. Box unless a delivery confirmation waiver is received. Paparazzi is not held liable for missing shipments, commission payments, or any action or delayed response as a result of inaccurate or outdated contact information on the Consultant's account. This includes name, billing address, shipping address, telephone numbers, texting numbers, email address, and any other means of communication possible.

6.2 Changes to the Agreement

It is the Consultant's responsibility to update or initiate any updates if there are any changes to the Agreement, including government ID numbers, applicant names, or business entities. These changes can be initiated through Paparazzi Support, and require that a newly executed and completed Agreement be submitted. There may be an additional $25 fee to change principles, business entities, or taxable government IDs on file.

6.3 Continuing Leadership

Any Consultant who sponsors another Consultant into Paparazzi must perform a bona fide assistance and training function to ensure that his/her organization is properly operating their Paparazzi business and that they are in full compliance with local and federal laws, and this Agreement. It is expected that Consultants will monitor the activities of their organizations and support full compliance with the Company's policies contained within this Agreement. In any circumstances, where it is discovered by a Consultant that a member of their team may be in violation to this Agreement, they are to do all within their power to bring them back into compliance with this Agreement; if that is not possible or completed, they are to notify the Paparazzi Compliance Department immediately.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

Consultants are expected to support, train, and mentor other Consultants in the organization to help them build success. It is expected that sponsoring Consultants be available to be contacted, attend meetings, and support their organizations. Failure to do so will result in a lack of personal success within the Company.

6.4 Providing Documentation

When enrolling a new Consultant, the sponsoring Consultant must be able to provide or ensure that they have access to, and have reviewed, the latest version of the Policies and Procedures, the Compensation Plan, and the Consultant Agreement before the new Consultant signs the Independent Consultant Agreement, or completes the process online.

6.5 Reporting Obligation

All Consultants have an obligation to report any policy violation that they may witness or be aware of to the Paparazzi Compliance Department. Failure to do so may result in compliance actions taken against them.

6.6 Laws and Ordinances

All Consultants must be aware of, and adhere to any local or federal laws and ordinances that may affect or be a part of their Paparazzi business or sales activities.

6.7 Federal Regulations

Certain federal regulations govern the direct sale of inventory, which includes Paparazzi Accessories. In order to comply with those regulations, Consultants must ensure the following information is provided on all sales receipts at each transaction:

- a. Date of transaction;
- b. Product issued (units purchased);
- c. Name and address of selling Consultant; and
- d. Signature of purchaser, indicating receipt of product.

They must also be aware of the Consultant's return policy of the product.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

Consultants are required to issue sales receipts for the retail purchase of Paparazzi product, as well as to keep a copy for themselves for no less than two years from the transaction documented.

6.8 Adherence to Hostess Rewards Program

The success of any party planning organization rests with the success of the Hostess. "Hostess" refers to someone who has agreed to hold a party for their friends and associates, and have invited a Paparazzi Consultant to offer product at their home or via an online party. Incentivizing a Hostess to hold a party at their home or online is key to the success of any organization. Therefore, Paparazzi has outlined the following as the minimum amount of compensation offered to Hostesses for hosting the party:

- a. All Consultants are obligated to offer a 10% credit to the Hostess for the retail sales generated at their hosted party - preferably to be selected out of the inventory at the party. Hostesses of online parties will choose from current online inventory before the party is closed. The credit amount is determined from Retail Sales (not profit), and is exchanged for Retail Price ($5 USD).

To support and offset the cost for the Consultant to adhere to this minimum offering for their Hostess, Paparazzi supplements a Consultant's personal inventory purchases with additional units that may be used to fill this obligation.

Paparazzi strongly encourages Independent Consultants to increase and enhance their Hostess Rewards program for their own Hostesses – understanding that the more excited the Hostess is, the more excited the customers are, and the more sales are generated.

6.9 Reception of Product

When an order is received, it is the Consultant's responsibility to do an immediate inventory of the product delivered to determine if there are any damaged or missing pieces from the invoiced order. Failure to notify Paparazzi within three business days of confirmed delivery of the shipment will cancel your right to request a return. Any pieces that may be received that can be reasonably corrected using the Complete Jewelry Tool Kit included in each Starter Kit will not be considered returnable.

Related articles:

6.10 Lost or Stolen Orders

In the event that an order is shipped by Paparazzi and not received by the designated recipient, Paparazzi will initiate a claim through the associated courier. The courier's investigation process can take up to ten (10) business days. If the courier determines that the package was delivered to the address provided and no signature was obtained, a replacement order may be sent at Paparazzi's discretion. There is no guarantee of a replacement order being sent under these circumstances.

If excessive or fraudulent claims of missing deliveries are submitted by a Consultant, corrective action, including suspension and possible termination will be initiated.

6.11 Holding or Manipulation of Enrollments or Orders

A Consultant must never hold or manipulate the timing of an Independent Consultant's enrollment or order. Doing so will result in the conclusion that such actions are in conjunction with Bonus Buying (see Section 5.19), and will be subject to a compliance review. Doing so also postpones the activity of the new Independent Consultant, and can damper an opportunity for them to succeed.

6.12 Actions of Household Members

If a member of a Consultant's immediate household engages in activities that violate the Agreement (including these Policies), the Consultant will be considered to be in violation of the Agreement. This section also applies to any member of a business entity that is a business representative of Paparazzi as a Consultant.

SECTION 7 – Bonuses and Commissions

7.1 Bonuses and Commissions

A Consultant must be active (accumulate and/or purchase a minimum of 50 PV within a commission period) in good standing, and in compliance with the Agreement to qualify for bonuses and commissions. So long as the Consultant complies with the terms of the Agreement, Paparazzi shall pay commissions to qualified Consultants in accordance with the Compensation Plan and their qualifications. If at any time during a month a Consultant account is suspended for compliance or policy issues, their commission check for that month will be held until the Compliance Department determines a resolution to the issue. If it is found that there was no violation, the check will be issued at that time. If the account is terminated as a result of proven violations, the commission will not be paid.

The minimum amount for which Paparazzi will issue a check or direct deposit is $20.00 (after a $2.50 processing fee for printed checks). If a Consultant's earnings for the month total less than the aforementioned amount, those funds will be placed on their Paparazzi account to be added to the next commission payout cycle. Once the minimum amount has accumulated, the standard payout process will be triggered.

In the event that a check must be reissued due to misinformation out of the control of Paparazzi, an additional $2.50 will be charged and taken from the check amount.

After a commission period is closed, a monthly audit and commission calculation begins. Final commission calculations will be posted (via the Virtual Back Office) around the 10th of the month, and the checks mailed and deposits made no later than the 20th day of the following month for

7.4 Bonus Adjustments from Returns

In the event that a commission has been issued on the sale of product that is eventually returned or on inventory that is accepted back by Paparazzi, any bonuses or commissions that were calculated and paid on the initial sale of the inventory or products will be deducted from the month in which the refund or return took place. This may continue for subsequent months until the paid commissions are recovered from all Consultants up the tree which may have earned commissions from the initial sales of the refunded inventory.

7.5 Bonus and Volume Reports

All information provided by Paparazzi over the phone, online, or through any type of downline activity reports, including but not limited to personal and group sales volume (or any part thereof), and downline sponsoring activity is believed to be accurate and reliable. Nevertheless, due to various factors including the inherent possibility of human and mechanical error, the accuracy, completeness, and timeliness of orders, denial of credit cards and payments, returned product or inventory, credit cards and payment method chargebacks, the information is not guaranteed by Paparazzi or any person creating or transmitting the information. All sales volume information is provided "as is" without warranties, expressed or implied, or representations of any kind whatsoever. In particular, but without limitation, there shall be no warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular use, or non-infringement.

To the fullest extent permissible under applicable law, Paparazzi and/or other persons creating or transmitting the information will in no event be liable to any Consultant or anyone else for any direct, indirect, consequential, incidental, special or punitive damages that arise out of the use of or access to sales volume information (including but not limited to lost profits, bonuses, or commissions, loss of opportunity, and damages that may result from inaccuracy, incompleteness, inconvenience, delay, or loss of the use of the information), even if Paparazzi or other persons creating or transmitting the information shall have been advised of the possibility of such damages. To the fullest extent permitted by law, Paparazzi or other persons creating or transmitting the information shall have no responsibility or liability or other theory with respect to any subject matter of this agreement OR terms and conditions related thereto.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

Access to and use of the Paparazzi online and telephone reporting services and the Consultant's reliance upon such information is at the Consultant's own risk. If the Consultant is dissatisfied with the accuracy or quality of the information, their sole and exclusive remedy is to discontinue use of and access to Paparazzi's online and telephone reporting services and their reliance upon the information.

7.6 Compensation Plan Calculations

All calculations within the Paparazzi Compensation Plan (qualification and bonus calculations) are based off of the Personal or Product Volume (PV) accumulated within such account or organization. This includes all ranks, commissions, bonuses, rebates, promotions, or any other form of rewards offered by Paparazzi within or outside of the Paparazzi Compensation Plan.

Paparazzi Compensation Plan is audited monthly in an attempt to ensure accuracy. Any errors that are discovered are to be reported to Paparazzi Support within 30 days of the publication of the commission run. Paparazzi has no responsibility in relation to any issues that are not reported within that 30 day period. Paparazzi does all due diligence to ensure accuracy in all calculations and payouts.

SECTION 8 – Payment & Sales Tax

8.1 Insufficient Funds

It is the Consultant's responsibility to ensure that there are sufficient funds through the approved transaction type or credit card. If the funds or credit is not available, the system may not accept the Consultant's order, or the orders of their organization. If the order payment is not resolved by the end of the commission period, the order will be canceled, and any lost commissions, qualifications, or business as a result of the lost order is the sole responsibility and liability of the Consultant.

8.2 Entered Orders

Any online orders that have been entered but not paid for will be voided after two (2) calendar days.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

8.3 Sales Tax

In states where the Paparazzi products are subject to sales tax, the Consultant is charged for the sales tax at the full Retail Sales amount at the time of the wholesale purchase of inventory. This is intended to ensure that each state tax agency is made whole on any potential sales from the transactions of that wholesale product. Paparazzi collects these taxes at the time of wholesale inventory purchase and remits it to the state on behalf of the retail sale that the Consultant may now have. The sales tax is charged at the local level of the location where the order is shipped. Paparazzi also collects retail sales tax (based on shipping location) from customers that order online from the Paparazzi website.

This also allows the Paparazzi Consultant the option of charging their local taxes on their Customer transactions and recuperate that cost, or absorbing it into their business structure; while at the same time not bringing any uncovered sales tax liability on Paparazzi or the Consultant.

Paparazzi is required to remit sales tax this way.

SECTION 9 – Warranties, Guarantees, Returns, and Repurchases

9.1 Manufacturer Defects

Paparazzi only warrants against manufacturer defects. Consultants are required to inventory their product within three days upon receipt and immediately report any defective products (in accordance with Section 6.9). There are times when small pieces of jewelry may be loose (i.e. jump rings) and only need a small adjustment; these are not manufacturer defects. Consultants are expected to report any issues to Paparazzi Support, and describe the issue to identify what might be done to resolve it. If indeed, it is determined that there is a manufacturer defect, the Paparazzi Support Representative will approve an RMA (Return Merchandise Authorization) Number for the defective pieces ONLY.

The Consultant will then be required to complete and submit a Return Request Form and send it, along with the defective merchandise to Paparazzi. Upon receipt, a credit for the amount of the original purchase price will be placed on the Consultant's account. This credit can be accessed via the Back Office and can be applied to a future order with Paparazzi. Return shipping costs will be included in the amount of the credit if the return shipping method indicated on the Return Request Form was used.

Personal Volume (PV) associated with the returned items will be retracted in the month that the return was received by Paparazzi.

9.2 No Warranty of Used Product

Paparazzi does not guarantee or warranty its product after it is removed from the packaging and/or used. Paparazzi Accessories are fashionable, trendy, and inexpensive. There is no intention or claim at the time of retail purchase of any life of the product, guarantee, or warranty. Consultants are encouraged to have their own satisfaction offerings within their own business, but to never offer any type of product life guarantee by Paparazzi. Used or opened product will not be returnable to Paparazzi, whether by a Retail Customer or an Independent Consultant, unless the product falls under the manufacturer defects mentioned in Section 9.1.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

9.3 Purchase Policy

Any Consultant who has an active account may purchase Paparazzi product as inventory to resell. Purchased Paparazzi product is the inventory of the Consultant, and is their responsibility to sell or move. Consultants should not purchase more than they reasonably believe they can resell. Upon purchase and opening of the product, the Consultant accepts the responsibility to sell that product, and remove any liability of Paparazzi to make any retail sales on their behalf. Product purchased for inventory carries no warranties (see Section 9.2) and in most circumstances may not be returned (see Section 9.4) and the purchasing Consultant accepts those liabilities.

9.4 Return Policy

As a result of the nature of the Paparazzi business, excess inventory from a show or a house party is not returnable. In relation to the nature of Paparazzi, fashion trends, and rotating inventory, once the product is purchased and is delivered, that item is not returnable unless it falls under the guidelines of "Manufacturer Defects" (see Section 9.1), and is identified within three days of receipt. Once a product package is no longer offered, returned inventory is no longer available to be restocked and therefore resold. Any excess products from a show or party that the Consultant may have ordered, are encouraged to be used at the next party or show or as Hostess gifts. As a result of the fast change of fashion, the potential handling of the product, and the inability to track single pieces, or to resell returned items that have already rotated out of the online catalogue, most jewelry that has been received may not be considered resalable, and therefore should not be requested to be returned.

Any and all volume from the returned product will be retracted from the sales organization if within a current commission period, or any commissions issued would be retracted back from the upline per Section 7.4.

9.5 Return of Enrollment

Consultants have thirty (30) days from the time of their enrollment to rescind the Independent Consultant Agreement. As long as Paparazzi is notified within the first 30 days from the time of the initial enrollment, Paparazzi will refund the full amount of the Starter Kit purchased provided certain conditions are met. For a full refund, all items in the kit must be unopened, unused, and un-displayed. If some items have been opened, a full refund may be given for any items in the kit that are unopened, unused, and undisplayed. All refunds are subject to a review of merchandise once it is received by Paparazzi. A Returned Merchandise Authorization (RMA) number is required for all returns. RMA numbers can be obtained by calling Paparazzi Support. Returning items must be received no later than 15 days from the date on which the Consultant notifies Paparazzi of their intent to terminate their Independent Consultant Agreement, or 45 days from initial enrollment date (whichever comes first).

9.6 Inventory Buy Back

In the event that a Consultant wishes to terminate their account, and request that any remaining inventory be purchased back by Paparazzi, only unused, not previously displayed, unopened, never previously worn, and only those with the original Paparazzi tags would be considered for inventory buy back. Items that don't carry PV are not eligible for buy back. In such an event, the inventory buy back, as a result of the changing world of fashion, will be at a discounted rate of $2 per acceptable unit piece (with a retracted 2 PV for each unit). Acceptable pieces will be determined at the sole discretion of Paparazzi and only after review and inspection upon the return. An RMA number issued and approved by Paparazzi Support is required prior to any inventory buy back returns taking place – or the inventory buy back will not be honored. The full accumulation of the returned product volume will be retracted from the organization as in Section 7.4, and the most recent commissions which may have been earned by the terminating Consultant may be retracted or removed from the returning funds as a result of the retracting volume which may have qualified them within the Paparazzi Compensation Plan for previous awarded bonuses.

9.7 Refused Deliveries

In any circumstance where a Paparazzi inventory order is refused at the door and returned to Paparazzi, the ordering Consultant will be liable for a $15.00 refusal fee (issued by the delivering service) as well as a 10% restocking fee to restock the unopened inventory.

If an order is cancelled after it has left the warehouse, a $15 recall fee will be charged to the Consultant.

9.8 Business Autoship or Fashion Fix

When a Consultant subscribes to receive the monthly business autoshipment (hereafter referred to as the Fashion Fix), the Consultant acknowledges that it is an optional service, and is in no form required by this document, literature, or training. The Fashion Fix is designed to help the Consultants in the following ways:

- a. Contributing to the minimum monthly level of Personal Volume (50) required to be considered active and eligible for commissions;
- b. Maintain new inventory on hand through regular inventory shipments.

Due to the nature of fashion as well as Paparazzi's inventory process, when the Fashion Fix option is selected by the Consultant, the Consultant acknowledges the following:

- a. There is no guarantee, option, or perception that any single piece, accessory, or item will be part of the Fashion Fix;
- b. That each package is selected with the intent to increase inventory of the Consultant by the amount specified above, not to increase any particular item or accessory;
- c. That due to the nature and purpose of the program, Fashion Fix packages are non-refundable, non-returnable, or non-disputable, for any reason, including but not limited to: selection of items received, color of items received, ration of any particular accessory, or satisfaction of the items received. Only items that fall under the guidelines of a manufacturer defect and falls under the guidelines of Section 9.1 will be considered for potential return.

9.8.1 Method of Payment for Fashion Fix

The Fashion Fix must be paid for by credit card. The credit card on file for the Fashion Fix will be processed on the 20th of the month. If the card is declined for any reason, the Consultant will receive an email notifying them of the decline. The Consultant will then have until 11:59 PM ET on the second business day following the decline to correct any issues there may be with their order. On the third business day, all cards that were declined will be processed a second time. If the funds transfer successfully, the order will be processed within three business days and sent to the Consultant. In the event that the second attempt to charge the card designated for the order declines, the Fashion Fix order for that month will be cancelled. It is the responsibility of the Consultant to contact Paparazzi Support to change their credit card information on their order. In addition, the Consultant will need to make the same changes to the card on their Fashion Fix profile. Changing the card on the monthly order will not make a change to the profile.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

One credit card decline on your Fashion Fix profile will not affect your enrollment in the program. However, any Consultant having two consecutive months with a declined card will lose their enrollment in the program and their subscription will be cancelled. If a Consultant wishes to reenroll following cancellation, they may do so through their Back Office or by contacting our Support Team at (855) 697-2727 or via email: support@paparazziaccessories.com. Re-enrolling in the program is subject to availability.

9.8.2 Fashion Fix Waiting List

Enrollment in the Fashion Fix is limited by availability. A Consultant can request to be placed on the waiting list for Fashion Fix enrollment anytime by contacting Paparazzi Support. As spots in the Fashion Fix become available, Consultants will be subscribed to the Fashion Fix in the order in which they were added to the waiting list. When a Consultant is subscribed to the Fashion Fix from the waiting list, they will be notified via email and their credit card will be charged when the next Fashion Fix processes (see Section 9.8.1).

9.9 Sold Out Items

If an item that has been purchased sells out before an order is fulfilled, the Consultant will be notified via email. This email, along with the order's packing slip, will list each item from the Consultant's order that has sold out.

A credit for these items (and applicable sales tax) will be placed on the Consultant's account. This credit can be accessed through the Consultant's Back Office and can be applied towards a future order. A replacement will not be offered.

SECTION 10 – Dispute Resolution and Disciplinary Proceedings

10.1 Disciplinary Sanctions

A Consultant's violation of the Agreement, any of its components, these Policies and Procedures, or the violation of any common law duty, including but not limited to any applicable duty of loyalty, any illegal, fraudulent, deceptive or unethical business conduct, or any act or omission by a Consultant that, in the sole discretion of the Company may damage its reputation or goodwill, may result, at Paparazzi's discretion, in one or more of the following measures being imposed on the Consultant:

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

- a. Issuance of a written warning;
- b. Requirement that the Consultant take immediate corrective measures;
- c. Imposition of a fine, which may be withheld from bonus and commission checks;
- d. Loss of rights to one or more bonus and commission checks;
- e. Paparazzi may withhold from a Consultant all or part of the Consultant's bonuses and commissions during any period of investigation involving an alleged violation of the Agreement. If the Consultants business is terminated for disciplinary reasons they will lose all rights and will not be entitled to recover any held commissions;
- f. Suspension of the individual's Agreement for one or more pay periods;
- g. Involuntary termination of the offender's Agreement;
- h. Any other measure expressly allowed within any provision of the agreement;
- i. In situations deemed appropriate by Paparazzi, the Company may institute legal proceedings for monetary and/or equitable relief.

In the event that a written warning is issued, with specific request of compliance or action, such agreed to terms between Paparazzi and the disciplined Consultants are considered an appended agreement to their Consultant Agreement, and a violation of such terms may warrant, at Paparazzi's full discretion, any or all of the actions detailed above.

All disciplinary actions are considered confidential and should not be discussed with uninvolved parties. Resolutions and outcomes are not required to be made public knowledge.

10.2 Grievances and Complaints

When a Consultant has a grievance or complaint with another Consultant regarding any practice or conduct in relationship to their respective Paparazzi business, the complaining Consultant should first report the problem to his/her Sponsor who should review the matter and try to resolve it with the other party's upline Sponsor. If the matter cannot be resolved, it must be reported in writing to Paparazzi Support. Paparazzi Support will review the facts and resolve the issue at the sole discretion of the Compliance Department.

10.3 Arbitration and Jurisdiction

Any dispute or claim arising from or relating to the Agreement (including these Policies and Procedures), or any other claim or grievance against Paparazzi in any form whatsoever, including but not limited to, economic losses, personal injury, property damage, will be subject to mediation at Paparazzi's corporate address using a neutral mediator of Paparazzi's choosing. In the event that Paparazzi and the Independent Consultant are unable to resolve their dispute through mediation, Paparazzi and the Independent Consultant will be subject to final and binding arbitration to be held in Salt Lake City, Utah.

Policies and Procedures

Effective September 1, 2015

The arbitration will take place before a panel of three arbitrators to be selected as follows: the Independent Consultant shall select one arbitrator, Paparazzi shall select one arbitrator, and the selected arbitrators will select the third arbitrator. The third arbitrator shall be an attorney. The party initiating the arbitration will identify its arbitrator in its written demand for arbitration to the other party. The other party shall identify its arbitrator within five (5) days of receipt of the notification of intent to arbitrate, and the third arbitrator must be selected within five (5) days of the appointment of the second arbitrator. Paparazzi shall pay the fees of its selected arbitrator, the Independent Consultant shall pay the fees of his/her selected arbitrator, and Paparazzi and the Independent Consultant shall pay equal shares of the third arbitrator's fees. The dispute will be subject to rules of arbitration agreed upon by the majority vote of the arbitrators and will be communicated to the party within ten (10) days after the arbitration panel has been completed.

The prevailing party in any arbitration proceeding shall be entitled to receive from the losing party all costs and expenses of arbitration, including legal and filing fees. The decision of the arbitrators shall be final and binding on the parties and may, if necessary, be reduced to a judgment in any court of competent jurisdiction. The decision of the arbitrators shall be final, and there shall be no right to appeal such decisions in any court or judicial system. This agreement to arbitrate shall survive any termination or expiration of the Agreement.

Nothing in these Policies and Procedures shall prevent Paparazzi from applying to and obtaining from any court having jurisdiction a writ of attachment, a temporary injunction, preliminary injunction, permanent injunction or other relief available to safeguard and protect Paparazzi's interest prior to, during, or following the filing of any arbitration or other proceeding or pending the rendition of a decision or award in connection with any arbitration or other proceeding.

Additionally, any dispute a Consultant has with Paparazzi for any act or omission relating to or arising from this Agreement, must be brought within one year from the date of the alleged misconduct and by accepting this Agreement, said Consultant waive all claims that any other statute of limitation applies.

Further, by accepting this agreement, the Consultant agrees and covenants not to file suit against Paparazzi, any of its affiliates, subsidiaries, officers, directors, or employees for any claim or grievance the Consultant may have arising from the status as an Independent Consultant of Paparazzi.

Jurisdiction and venue of any matter not subject to arbitration shall reside in Washington County, in the state of Utah unless the laws of the state in which the Consultant resides expressly require the application of its laws, in which case that state's law shall govern all issues related to jurisdiction and venue. The Federal Arbitration Act shall govern all matters relating to arbitration. The laws of the State of Utah shall govern all other matters relating to or arising from the Agreement unless the laws of the state in which a Consultant resides expressly require the application of its laws.

10.4 Product Liability Claims

Paparazzi maintains insurance to protect the Company against product liability claims. Paparazzi's insurance policy contains a "Vendors Endorsement" which extends the coverage to Independent Consultants so long as they are marketing Paparazzi products in accordance with applicable laws and regulations and the Agreement. Paparazzi's product liability policy does not extend coverage to claims that arise as a result of a Consultant's misconduct in marketing, reselling, or representing the product or company.

SECTION 11 – Inactivity and Cancellation

11.1 Voluntary or Involuntary Cancellation

As long as the Consultant remains current (see activity requirements outlined in Section 3.7), and complies with the terms of the Agreement and these Policies and Procedures, Paparazzi will continue to pay the Consultant all earned bonuses and commissions in accordance with the Compensation Plan. Bonuses and commissions constitute the entire reward for the Consultant's efforts in generating sales and all activities related – including building and support of a downline organization.

If a Consultant fails to meet the minimum inventory purchases or sales requirement for a period of twelve consecutive months (with less than 200 PV), or if the Agreement is voluntarily or involuntarily terminated, the Consultant shall be deemed to have waived all their rights, title, claim, privileges, or interest to the downline organization that they operated, and to any bonuses or commissions for the sales generated from that organization. Additionally, the Consultant will lose the right to represent Paparazzi, the right to sell Paparazzi products and the right to receive any further compensation, bonuses, commissions, or other income resulting from Paparazzi activities.

If at any time the Consultant has a period of 12 consecutive months wherein the 200 PV minimum is not reached, the Agreement will be canceled; the account and position terminated, and the measures in Section 11.1 will take effect. Paparazzi will not provide or issue any written confirmation of the cancellation.

11.4 Involuntary Cancellation

Any violation of the terms of the Agreement, including any amendment that may be made by Paparazzi at its sole discretion, may result in any of the sanctions listed in Section 10.1, including involuntary termination or cancellation of the Agreement at the sole discretion of Paparazzi.

Paparazzi reserves the right to cancel any or all Consultant Agreements upon thirty (30) days written notice in the event that it elects to.

In any circumstance where there is an Involuntary Cancellation of an Agreement on a position which previously had generated a minimum of $50 from the Compensation Plan; that account will be terminated, but will not be removed from the Paparazzi organization tree – maintaining the current structure of the organization, and protecting the integrity of the original organization (see Section 4.6 for further detail).

11.5 – Enrollment Restriction
